-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I – claims 1-8 and 17-23 in the reply filed on 6/12/08 is acknowledged.

Claims 9-16 are withdrawn from consideration.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claims 1-8 and 17-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 is vague and confusing because the claim appears to be claiming 2 inventions, a method and a strip device. The preamble of the claim is directed to a method and a strip device. Only one invention can be claimed in a single claim. If applicants are seeking to claim a method, it should be noted that the body of the claim does not recite the steps for a complete method. The body of the claim only recites steps for selecting antibodies, not steps for minimizing likelihood of false positives and false negatives. If applicants are seeking to claim a strip device, it should be noted that the body of the claim fails to recite any components, aside from antibodies, that comprise the strip device.

Claim 17 is vague and indefinite. While the preamble of the claim recites a "device", the body of the claim fails to recite any components for a device. The body of the claim only describes antibodies to PAMG-1. The claim appears to be directed to a test strip device. If so, the appropriate limitations for a test strip should be recited in the body of the claim.

Claim 21 is vague because the recitation of "the solid support" in line 2 lacks antecedent support.

Claim 22 is vague because the recitation of "the ratio" in line 1 lacks antecedent support.

Claim 23 is vague and confusing because the relationship of the claimed monoclonal antibodies to the device of claim 17 is not clear. Claim 17 doesn't recite using any monoclonal antibodies.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 17-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fuks et al.

Fuks et al (US Patent 5,877,029) discloses a test strip device for performing sandwich immunoassays to detect IGFBP-1 (a.k.a. PAMG-1). The test strip contains mobile and immobile monoclonal antibodies that bind to IGFBP-1. The mobile antibodies are conjugated to a marker such as gold sol particles.

Conclusion

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Christopher L. Chin whose telephone number is (571) 272-0815. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Long Le can be reached on (571) 272-0823. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
